Died at Watsonville, California, Irma White, aged 17 months and 5 days, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. White, recently of Prescott.

Ayotte, the Piute Indian, was killed by his cousins, it being a custom of Indian tribes that when they kill any one of their number killed, relative is sent to do the work. Ayotte was compelled by the Indians to kill his own brother, who had killed a white man. General Crook, when he wanted an Indian, would send a relative to bring him, and on one occasion a buck was sent for his father. He returned, bringing the head of his father with him. After being shot by his cousin, but before death, Ayotte was asked by his reason for killing his whites. He said: "Heep mad at whites; wanted to kill somebody." After talking with him for some time, they shot him in the head, killing him instantly.

Mrs. Joseph Dent, of Flagstaff, is a guest of Mrs. Sam Hill this week.

J. H. Nash, a prominent rancher in Williamson valley, made a flying visit to Prescott on business today.

Edward Schieffelin, who discovered the Tombstone mines in Arizona in 1873, was found dead last night, May 14th, in his cabin about twenty miles east of Canyonville, Ore. He was on a prospecting tour the time, and his sudden death is said to have been due to heart failure.—L. A. Herald.

Deputy Marshal J. W. Slankard, of Phoenix, yesterday arrested a man named Snyder and a woman with whom he was living, but to whom was not married and took them to Phoenix for trial under the Elks' laws. The woman claims to be a woman with Snyder from the fact to escape from a cruel and unkind husband. When she reached Phoenix, instead of telling her troubles to a policeman, she told her to a Phoenix woman who she had betrayed her, hence her trouble.

A woman at Glenham, N. Y., has given birth to a girl baby with three eyes. Should the little creature survive at the marriageable age, she can keep two eyes scanning the world and one on the main chance.—New Post.

tion works and other matters of general interest to Prescott, drew a good sized body of representative citizens. Ex-Governor Powers was the first speaker to address the meeting and did so in his usually sincere and logical manner. Judge Sloan followed and in his illustrations of what goes to make up a thrifty and populous country, was the recipient of many compliments. His speech was brilliant and if the advice given by him is heeded the future of this section should revolve around a pivot of unity and prosperity. There was disappointment expressed that T. W. Johnston was detained home by sickness, and M. G. Burns, who was to discuss the question of the treatment of low grade ores, was absent at Cherry Creek. President Fredericks of the meeting, in consequence of this, and the entertainment of the grand army ladies, adjourned the meeting early that all might attend.

Don't think that your liver needs treating if you are bilious. It doesn't. It's your stomach. That is, your stomach is really what causes the biliousness. It has put your liver out of order.

See what's the matter with your stomach. Sick stomach poisons liver and then there is trouble. Shaker Digestive Cordial cures stomach and then all's well. That's the case in a nutshell.

Shaker Digestive Cordial is no secret. Formula on every bottle. But it's the simple honest way it's made, the honest Shaker herbs and other ingredients of which it is composed, that make it so efficacious.

Any real case of indigestion and biliousness can be cured with a few bottles of Shaker Digestive Cordial. Try it.

At druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.
